

April / May 2009,

ClearSy opens this latest letter with a major piece of news: that of the release of the Atelier B 4.0 in its stable version. The latter is accompanied by a brand new method of distribution for which:

- the download of the Atelier B is free
- a new maintenance contract is adapted to your most specific needs

As regards our railway news, the Bérault station on the Parisian underground system was equipped in February 2009 with the first platform screen doors and the DOF1 system. Other stations will soon be equipped during the course of 2009.

Finally ClearSy is announcing its participation in numerous upcoming events, such as the RODIN Workshop 2009, the ABZ 2010 conference, as well as the Conference in Nantes entitled "The B Method, from Research through to Instruction".
